

Gemini Bakery Equipment Company
Assembly Technician

Job Description: Assembly Technician

Reporting Relationship: Material Operations Manager

Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to:

The assembly technician is responsible for assembling and troubleshooting customized mechanical and PLC operated bakery equipment. Performs a wide variety mechanical and electromechanical assembly operations. This position is full time with local travel as needed.

- Effectively assemble, operate and repair electro/mechanical equipment.
- Use hand tools, power tools, calipers, etc. to assemble equipment and assemblies according to drawings, instructions and specifications.
- Work collaboratively with other technicians, supervisors and engineers.
- Regularly lift and or move 50 pounds and occasionally move 100+ pound items.
- Execute first pass quality control inspections of equipment and parts on receipt from vendors and prior to shipment to customer sites.
- Effectively communicate problems and observations to management.

Job Requirements:

- High School Diploma/trade school diploma
- Must have own tools/toolbox
- Minimum of 5 year's experience in the assembly and troubleshooting of electro/mechanical equipment.
- Basic understanding on PLC programming for motion control systems
- Above average skills with hand tools, power tools, calipers, etc. to assemble, repair and modify equipment according to specifications and instructions.
- Ability to read mechanical drawings and electrical schematics.
- Must be able to read and understand internal process documents
- Working knowledge of operating procedures and understands why they are needed
- Working knowledge of close mechanical tolerances (less than .001") and electro mechanical devices
- Ability to lift and or move 50 pounds and occasionally move 100+ pound items, climb ladders and work at above average work heights and work in hot and cold work places.
- Attention to detail
- Must have a vehicle, valid driver's license, ability to obtain a passport and ability to operate a forklift and/or scissor lift (Gemini provides training if needed).